Second Sunday of Easter

An Easter Message from ELCA Presiding Bishop Elizabeth Eaton

After the Sabbath, as the first day of the week was dawning, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary went to the tomb. So begins the Easter story in the Gospel according to Matthew.

The women had lived through the pain of Friday and the emptiness of Saturday and were expecting death. All of their hope had come to a dead end. And just then, as the first day of the week was dawning, hope was restored. The angel said, "Do not be afraid; I know you are looking for Jesus who was crucified. He is not here: for he has been raised, as he said."

Instead of death - life. Instead of the end - the beginning.

On Easter, we [had] glorious celebrations in our congregations and worshiping communities. There [was] rejoicing and music and flowers and alleluias. And that's a good thing.

“When we have come to a dead end ... rejoice. Precisely there we are given resurrection life.”

But when the flowers fade and the pressures of life seem so heavy, when the brokenness of this world breaks our spirits, when we have come to a dead end ... rejoice. Because it is exactly there where the risen Christ meets us. It is precisely there where we are given resurrection life. It is at that point that we say, Christ is risen. Christ is risen indeed. Hallelujah.

Pastors John & Joan are at the Synod Rostered Leader's Convocation with Bishop Elizabeth Eaton April 23-25.
