What's Happening

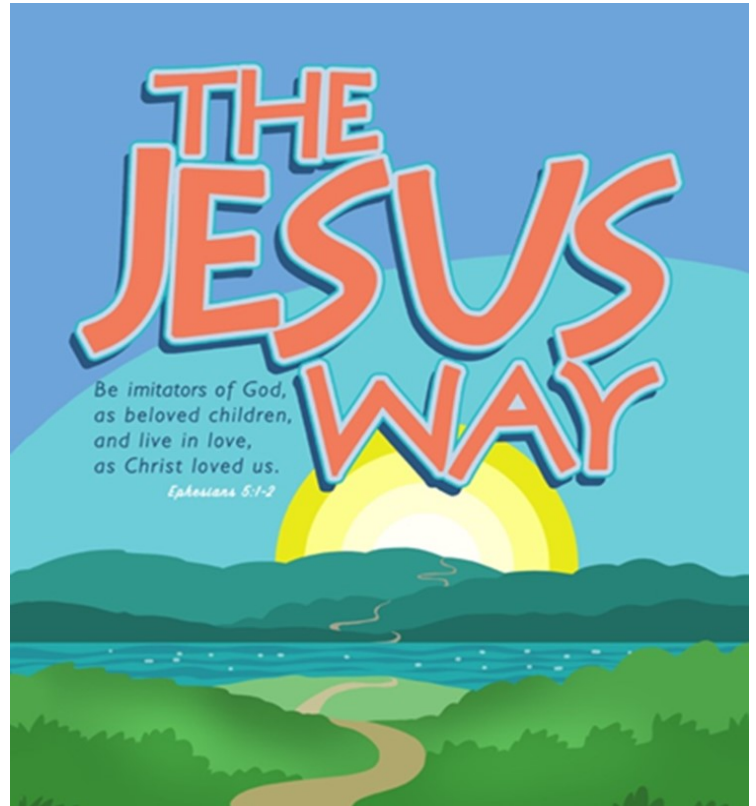

Lectionary 14
Fifth Sunday after Pentecost

Each year Vacation Bible School at Trinity is a time for our congregation to host children from our schools, our families and the community at large. Volunteers—many volunteers, about 90 of them—give their time and energy for a week to reach out to kids with a simple and important message: Jesus loves you!

This year we are doing some things differently. First of all, we are working with Camp Twinlow, a United Methodist camp in north Idaho. We had talked to Lutherwood and Lutherhaven about working with us, but they already had commitments with other congregations for our VBS week. Camp Twinlow is sending 7 of their camp counselors to do our openings, closings and station leadership. Our teens and adults will support them as crew leaders, shepherds, kitchen staff, nurse, set up and decorating. Plus the preschool program is written and done completely by our great staff of volunteers.

The second difference is we invested in the camp staff instead of an expensive curriculum that we always have to adapt to fit our theological differences. We are using Twinlow's day camp curriculum, "The Jesus Way," with a few of our additions. Our focus will be on Jesus and how he showed a different way to love God and love others.

All of this is coming together this year because of our great VBS team: Terry Anderson, Lois Debner, Mary Eaton, Kerry Fleiger-Holmes, Marilyn Hall, John Springer, Sandy Schneider and Val Thompson. Please pray for the camp staff, VBS staff and all the children and families this week that gather here to learn about The Jesus Way.
