The Longest Night

Thursday, December 20, 7 PM

For some, Christmas brings sadness instead of joy—a season of darkness arising because of grief, depression, isolation, trauma, and physical or mental illness. "The Longest Night" is a worship service for those touched by the darkness this year. Music, lament, prayers, and reflection will gently accompany us in the darkness.

Christmas Eve

Monday, December 24

All services with candle lighting, holy communion, and special music
